Capabilities Statement

Corporate Overview

PCI Advanced Technical Solutions, LLC (PCIATS) was founded in July of 2024 by the Poarch Creek Indians in an effort to diversify the tribe's business portfolio and sustain tribal growth with a profitable business delivering excellence in Engineering, Logistics, Program Support and Manufacturing services to the Aerospace and Defense sector.

Our long term vision and core values of fairness, trustworthiness, and perseverance guide us in creating a culture that fosters creativity, teamwork, and professional growth in an environment that focuses on the needs of the community. PCIATS focuses on building long-lasting, mutually beneficial relationships with our clients and strives for excellence, with superior quality and on-time delivery being key components of our business.

PCIATS is managed by a team of business professionals with decades of experience in technology, government, and commercial sectors. A strong sense of ethics and accountability define the way PCIATS senior leadership works to build a strong, viable, and highly capable company.

PCIATS is a Tribally-Owned, Native American business headquartered in Atmore, Alabama.
